Summary Minutes

Committee Meeting Tuesday, November 7, 2023 – 1:00 P.M.

Location: Oceano Community Center

ATTENDEES: Members present: Charles Varni, Beverly Joyce-Suneson, Jamine Carranza, Rebecca Britton, George Colendish, Mary Shulz, Anita Borja, Debra Allen, April Dury, Margaret (County Library).

1. OLD BUSINESS:

1. Update on OPARC as a OCSD Standing Committee. Resolution and By Laws up for review and possible action at upcoming OCSD meeting.
2. Update on State Parks grant application to fund student field trips at Oceano Elementary School. Will be notified in early December.
3. Review of Dia de los Muertos event on Nov 5. The event was a learning experience with lower attendance than expected. Those who did attend (approximately 35 persons) did enjoy the event and expressed appreciation for its existence. General feeling was to do another next year before rather than after the actual day; focus on shrines; award prizes for shrines; emphasize cultural history and meaning of event. Thank you to Wanda Monson from OES PTA who led the organization of this event.

2. NEW BUSINESS ITEMS:

Walking/Jogging track at OES

ACTION:

- The LMUSD has expressed support for this new school and community recreational infrastructure. They are not committing funding to its construction (our job) but they are making a large in-kind donation with the dedication of the space for the facility. Community questions were addressed and answered. Basically, the track is like any other school piece of infrastructure and there will be no changes in policies or rules in school operations as a result. It will be available for public use after school, on holidays and weekends, and during school vacations.
- LMUSD will be responsible for maintenance and management of the facility.
- Design and layout were discussed with recognition of how different uses of the space (Track, soccer fields, baseball field) need to be coordinated in the layout.
- School and community fundraising, along with grant writing will be the primary method of raising funds. This will involve mobilization of all Oceano volunteer organizations, businesses, and individuals. At the time cost is estimated at between $150,000 and $200,000. Suggested title for fundraiser were Oceano Walk, Run, Fun; Oceano Fun, Walk, Run; Oceano Walk, Run, Community Fun.
- This topic will need to be agendaized for discussion at the OCSD Board meeting and approval

3. NEXT MEETING: December 5, 2023 at 1:00P.M. at the NEW LOCATION: Oceano Community Services District Boardroom 1655 Front St Oceano, CA 93445.
